Book Exchange

We all have good friend that we want to share our good books with. Unfortunately there is not enough room on the book shelves. However you can still share them. On Thursday October 12 bring those books to the activities room and put them on the counter. This will give everyone the opportunity to browse. At the end of the day those who wish can take their books back to their rooms or we can donate them to Good Well.

We will be having Trick- or- Treaters
coming in on Halloween.
So stock up
